Appomattox Is All Set for Christmas!!!

It is a tradition in America, that the business season reaches a peak in December! There are so many things to do! In addition to Christmas Shopping, we have dozens of business items to "wrap up" the expiring year, and, literally, we believe that of all months in the year, we would place December as our "busiest" month.

And that means that you are pressed for that most precious of all commodities: TIME: Why not do your December Business in your Home Community of Historic APPOMATTOX!! We can save you TIME in this busy month. And we are committed to the statement that no where can you find better service or better merchandise or fairer prices, than in your Home Community, dealing with your friends and neighbors! We suggest that it will be to Your advantage to do your December Business in Appomattox.

Take a look at the Business Places listed on this page. Look at the variety of business services available. They are anxious to serve you. Add to that the sure fact that it is the Home Community Business Place that supports free Local Enterprise, and the answer is obvious! It saves you time and money, it helps your neighbors and your home-town friends. Help Appomattox GROW!

Vera

Vera, Nov. 30.- "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." —I John 1:9.

Mrs. George Abbitt, Sr., Mrs. Dora Conner and Mrs. Marvin Jacobs visited Mrs. Ida Morris on Wednesday and brought her a nice lot of Thanksgiving gifts from the W. M. U. Society of New Hope Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey, Jr. and Sandra, T. C. III, William and Don and Mr. Jimmie Harvey visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey on Thanksgiving.

Week-end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey were Mr. and Mrs. Bascobe Beasley and daughter, of Richmond.

The community was saddened by the death of Mr. Homer Reynolds. He will be missed in New Hope Church and in the community, as well as in his home. We extend sympathy to his family.

The hunting season has been thoroughly enjoyed, and much game has been killed.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Watson on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey, and Harriette and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Beasley and daughter, of Richmond.

It's a sad time around Vera. So many passing away. Mr. Burr Abbitt died suddenly on Tuesday night. We extend sympathy to the family.

The farmers are getting good prices for their tobacco.

Let us show you how our Sta*Nu finishing and quality dry-cleaning actually rejuvenate car coats, topcoats and all of your family's heavy weather clothes! We charge you nothing extra for Sta*Nu —the nationally advertised, nationally preferred dry-cleaners' finishing process!
Sta*Nu is used by leading clothing manufacturers.

CENSUS SHOWS FEWER FARMERS; BUT LARGER FARMS

Fewer farmers - but larger farms are the trend in Virginia and elsewhere, according to the recently released preliminary Census of Agriculture.

The number of farms dropped from 136,416 to 97,623 in the years from 1954 through 1959. The average size of a farm rose sharply—from 107.7 to 134.5 acres — and the value of an acre rose nearly one-third.

On paper, more than 1,500,000 acres went out of farming. But agricultural economists at VPI say many of these changes are accounted for by a change in the government's definition of a farm. The average value of land and buildings per farm went up from $10,831 to over $18,000.

Grouped by size, the only increase in numbers of farms was in those of 500 to 999 acres.

Total farms in this group rose from 2,884 to 3,087.

In contrast, the farmers under 10 acres are disappearing fast — a drop from 20,325 to 8,038 in this category is recorded.

The number of farms with 1,000 or more acres stayed virtually the same — 999 in 1954, and 998 now.

The average age of all farm operators reporting is 53.1 years, compared to 51.7 years in 1954.

But the number of farm operators 65 years old or older is less— 22,237 of them now, compared to 28,226 in 1954.

In 1959, the government defined as a farm each place of 10 acres or more which sold $50 or more in farm products, and each place of less than 10 acres which sold $250 or more.

In 1954, a farm was each place of three or more acres producing $150 worth (whether sold or not) and each place of less than three acres which sold $150 worth or more.

Housekeeping is a lot of work for the women who actually keep house.
